AMERICAN PARTY BUSY IN SUMMIT

Result Is That Church Republicans Are Getting Cold Feet.

SMOOT CROWD WANTS TO

New Organization Is Expected to Poll Surprisingly Heavy Vote.

Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, Oct. 26 .- There is a great deal of uncasiness among the Republicans of Summit county over the results of the forthcoming election. They have virtually conceded that it is im-possible for them to get the usual vote for their candidates, and now it is claimed that they have shown a willingclaimed that they have shown a willingness to trade with the Democrats in an effort to land a few of the favorites on their ticket. They have also approached some of the American voters with the plea that it is utterly useless for some of the new party workers to hope for a victory, and that they will simply be throwing away their votes by casting a ballot for the American ticket.

The American workers, however, have determined to stand by their colors and poll the largest vote possible. They want the people to know just how many voters throughout the county are of this faith, and give every one an op-voters throughout the county are of this faith, and give every one an opportunity to show loyalty to the cause which means so much for the future of Utah. Although this is the first opportunity given the people of Summit county to vote the American ticket for both county and state offices, they do not propose to be late in lining up with the people who are to take the affairs from the hands of the rings and cliques that have been dominant too long.

Two Strong Candidates.

Two Strong Candidates. E. D. Sutton for senator and David Baxter for representative the Americans

In E. D. Sutton for senator and David Baxter for representative the Americans have two of the most capable men who could possibly be chosen to represent this section in the legislature. Both men have been residents of Park City for years. Mr. Sutton is one of the most successful business men in the camp, and Mr. Baxter is known to every old-time miner of the country. They are men who would take a deep interest in the affairs of the people, and favor the enactment of laws that would be beneficial to the laboring classes as well as those who have made liberal investments in lands and mercantile pursuits. James B. Wilson of Midway is the Republican candidate for senator, and William Archibald is the candidate for representative. The Smoot wing of the Republican party has determined to elect these men, even at the risk of losing the remainder of the ticket. It is said that they are offering to trade years for any of the endidates on the

After a conference with the workers he said that he felt confident the state ticket would poll a good vote in this county, and that he would give his entire time to the party workers from now until the close of the polls. He is one of the largest individual taxpayers in this county, and his mercantile firm is said to be the largest taxpayer. He is one of the best-liked men in this section of the state, and men in this section of the state, and should be able to assist in getting out a large vote for the county ticket.

Young Buchanan was sent to the school from Salt Lake a year ago under a committenent from Juvenile Judge E. G. Gowans. The lad was charged with the larceny of a number of empty sacks. In his petition the father of the youngster alleges that the proceedings prior to and at the time of the hearing were irregular and in conflict with the law.

The father of the boy says that he is the proper custodian of his child and that the offense for which he was sent to the school does not constitute delinquency as contemplated by the statute.

Superintendent Thomas is ordered by the court to appear next Friday with the boy and show cause if possible why the lad should continue as an inmate of the institution.

Police to Enforce Laws Relating to Sunday Selling of Liquor.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN, Oct. 26 .- The city council is determined to enforce the recent ordinance passed prohibiting the sale of intoxicants on Sunday and after the usual closing hours. There were two convicions for this offense in the police court Monday morning, but from the strenuous measures adopted at the meeting of the city council tenight it is probable that there will be few violations of the ordiance in the future. A report from the police committee was unanimously adopted providing that all saloons found guilty of dispensing flouor on Sunday and after closing hours will have their licenses canceled. The chief of police was instructed to report all violations of the ordinance to the council. After December 31 the city council has also decided that the number of existing licenses at that time will not be increased.

Councilman Thomas called attention to the fact that the action taken by the council in reconsidering its action on the issuing of a saloon license at a special meeting last week was irregular. #### SMOOT, SUTHERLAND & CO. MEET WITH TERRIBLE FROST AT BINGHAM

BINGRIAM. Oct. 26.—Despite the fact that the weather was rather warm, the greatest frost of ages settled upon this town tonight. It came in the form of a Republican rally, held in Canyon hall, which was attended by some 600 people, 150 of whom came from Salt Lake city. Of the whole number, over 200 were members of the American party, while it is to be supposed the others were Republicans.

Republicans.

Just before the curtain was rung up it was noticed that the local committee in charge of the decorations, and which was composed solely of Harry Joseph, had run up the signal of distress. At the rear of the stage, and directly behind the seats occupied by Senators Smoot and Sutherland, the two principal speakers of the evening, was an American flag with the blue field upside down, indicating distress in the annals of sea-going life. The mistake was plainly noticed by the crowd, but was merely smiled at by the senators, 'Joe' Sharp and a few would-be officeholders who were planted upon the stage.

Dudley Presides.

Dudley Presides.

The frost of this evening will not leave the minds of Bingham voters in many a long day, and Smoot. Sutherland. Sharp & Co. were responsible for it. They all appeared decidedly ill at ease, and when they spoke failed to elicit the least bit of enthusiasm. Only about once during the entire proceedings did anyone so much as applaud, and then those who held stage tickets and the faithful 150 from Salt Lake City were the only ones to indulge. Reed Smoot was the one thus favored, after making one of his famous promises, which always fall by the wayside before reaching their alleged destination.

The meeting was presided over by Professor E. E. Dudley, superintendent of the Bingham schools. He introduced Reed Smoot as the "greatest senator the state and the country has ever had." There was hardly a ripple of applause when the apostic-senator arose. He stated at the outset that he was present merely to discuss national issues, local affairs having no particular interest for him at the present moment. merely to discuss national issues, local affairs having no particular interest for him at the present moment. He talked for an hour about the tariff and its revision and told of his pecent visit to Europe and the number of people he found out of work there. He discussed the different platforms upon which Bryan had stood and declared that the Nebraska orator was about as much in the minds of the people as a puff of which He made a hit with those on the stage and the fatthful when he declared that every Republican congressman and senator would vote for the postal savings bank bill at the next session of congress. Hurry Joseph started a wild hursali and this was taken up by "Joe" Sharp, Deputy Sheriff Steele, Frank Hegmiddham and the 150 from Salt Lake City. The applause lasted for fully two seconds before quiet could be restored. In closing his remarks, the senior senator said: "Thank God I am a Republican and not under the influence of any body or sect in the state. Go home, think it over, and vote as God directs you."

The Hawalian musicians of Salt Lake were the real goods and furnished the only enjoyable part of the evening's entertainment.

The second speaker was "Joe" Sharp, only enjoyable part of the evenings entertainment.

The second speaker was "Joe" Sharp, the Republican candidate for sheriff. "Joe" was introduced as the "man who could successfully handle the Austrian troubles in Bingham." The remark was received with groams. After telling the people that they should vote as they saw ilt, the redsubtable Joseph proceeded to extell Sheriff Emery for his "brave, fearliess administration and for the wisdom with which he always landled every case which came to his attention. He has always given the utmost satisfaction to the people of Bingham (greams), and if elected I will endeavor to continue his spiendid conduct of the office."

"My Old Kentucky Home" was rendered by Bowman Johnson and he was followed by the last speaker of the evening. Senator George Sutherland. Following in the footsteps of his leader, the speaker talked only of national issues attacking the Democratic party, showing up its failures when in power and lauding the Republican party. After about forty-five minutes of sallure to awaken the people to his timely remarks, the Junior senator branched off on another tack and began the cracking of a few stale lokes. These failed to make the

During the present campaign several rallies have been held in this town, but none has left such a feeling of utter discust as the so-called Republican rally of tonight. All the speakers fell down ludiciously and the affair was a farce and failure from beginning to end.

Following the "rally" the there was a dance.
